Senior Sociologists Trip to Chicago

Mr. Sargent makes with the money.

The girls settle down.

Beal, Stephens, Crowe, and Goldsberry.

MR. GOLDSBERRY, as he has these several years past, convoyed a group of his senior Social Living students to Chicago on May 13. Your Album photographer, bleary-eyed at six-thirty in the morning, accompanied them only as far as the South Shore station and hence missed the glories of the wheat pit and forty-fifth floor observatory at the Board of Trade, the Illinois Continental Bank, lunch at Mandel's, shopping at Fields and on Maxwell Street, Hull House, dinner at Guey Sam's in China Town, and to the musical "Sing Out Sweet Land." The party returned to South Bend at two-thirty in the morning after twenty hours of duty. They did not look like this then.

HEREWITH the Senior Class gives you the Adams faculty — ladies, gentlemen, scholars, all. Of course, we haven't called them that, but now, at graduation, we love 'em! From Anderson to West, from 10B to 12A, from Junior High to that presidential greeting, they have labored mightily over us. If any of us ever amount to anything, much credit to these — our faculty and our friends.

Class of '45

THE Class of '45, two hundred fourteen strong, was the fourth to graduate from John Adams. The thirty-five members of the January advance guard received their diplomas, along with groups from Central, Riley and Washington, at a graduation exercise held at Central on January twenty-second. The one hundred ninety-seven other members of the class were graduated on May twenty-ninth. On both these occasions diplomas were granted to absent members of the class who had already been inducted into the armed services.

During its last year at Adams the class was led by the officers pictured above: "Louie" McKinney, president; "Louie" LaPierre, vice president; Roy Andrews, secretary; and Bob Duncan, treasurer. These officers were aided in managing senior business by a senior cabinet made up of John Goldsberry, Shirley Kline, Mary Ann Doran, Jack Tarr, and Phil Riner. Special assignments were handled by Prom Chairman Nancy Constantine, Class Gift Chairman John Goldsberry, Invitations Chairman Pat Alexander, and Assembly Chairman Shirley Stanz. Mr. Goldsberry was class sponsor and the other home room teachers were Miss Bennett, Miss Roell, Miss Anderson, Mr. Krider, and Mr. Thompson.

On Class Day, May 18, the seniors blossomed forth in cap and gown. They took final examinations in the morning, presented an assembly program in the afternoon, and staged their Senior Prom at the Progress Club in the evening. During the assembly members of the class who had been members of the Glee Club presented a musical skit, the stage-wise members gave "The Great Joanne," a one-act comedy, and President McKinney bade farewell to the school for his class. At the conclusion of the speech he presented a pair of plaques to Mr. Sargent. These class gifts are to bear the names of distinguished Adams scholars and athletes. At this assembly the following honors were conferred on members of the class: The Jeweled Student Council Scholarship Award for first ranking scholar on Valedictorian Dagny Lenon. The Gold Student Council Scholarship Award for excellence in scholarship on Marguerite Connon, Howard DePree, Mary Erhardt, Mary-Lou Harding, Betty Martin, Salutatorian Reva Resnick, and Mary Jane Wishman. The Silver Student Council Scholarship Award for excellence in scholarship on Joan Darr, Elayne Graf, Ervin Karlin, Louis LaPierre, Linda Myers, Shirley Platt, Rose Mae Smith, and George Turner. The John Adams Citizenship Award, a gift of the Class of '42, on Beverly Harden and Ervin Karlin. The Daughters of the American Revolution United States History Award on John G. Goldsberry. The Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Award on Nancy Constantine. The Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award on Howard DePree. The Parent-Teachers Association Home Economics Award on Linda Myers. The Parent-Teachers Industrial Arts Award on Richard Busfield. The Studebaker Local Award in Industrial Arts on Roger Schoonaert.

At Commencement the class was addressed by Dr. Harold F. Carr, of the Lakewood Methodist Church of Cleveland, Ohio. The Baccalaureate address was delivered by Reverend Edward M. Sausaman of Ewing Avenue Evangelical Church of South Bend.

"The Basketball"

Jan Van Houten, Jean Steinmetz, and Fran Bickel at "coke."

Tanner and Cox study lines.

President Kindig, Speaker Robert O'Hearn and Bill Means at "coke."

Drama Club

THIS year, as usual, the Drama Club has had a full schedule. Continuing their custom of giving a "coke" for new members the club sponsored one in the Little Theater at the beginning of the fall semester. Next on their program was the production of "Beggar on Horseback." Also during the fall the club put on a "Football Follies" for an assembly. The pictures of this affair are on page 72.

At the start of the spring semester another "coke" was given. This was followed by "The Ghost Story," a one-act comedy given for an assembly. Soon after this, production was begun on "Patience." Drama Club members helped on all committees.

Beggar on

THE all-school play, "Beggar on Horseback" was presented November 1 in the school auditorium. The play was a comedy written by Kaufman and Connely, and the production was under the direction of James L. Casaday and Mrs. Archibald McClure.

Leads for the drama were chosen and Lorraine Nichols and Jerry Gibson won the main roles of Cynthia and Neil. Other leads were: Gene Yundt as Dr. Rice, Bill Means as Mr. Cady, Pat Kindig as Mrs. Cady.

Horseback

Eleanor Dent as Gladys, Bob Tucker as Homer, and Bill Patterson as the Butler.

A pantomime was the feature of the play. Bill Patterson as the Prince and Zonia Null as the Princess carried the leads in this portion of the play. They were supported by Virginia Hyde as Lady-In-Waiting and Tom Tanner as Lord-In-Waiting. Don Payton was the policeman.

D. Lenon

"Patience"

"PATIENCE" is a typical Gilbert and Sullivan production in that it is a satire on the environment and the social customs of the English people during the late Nineteenth Century. The special phenomena that Messrs. G. and S. attacked in this operetta was the wave of phony aestheticism which the poets Oscar Wilde and Charles Algernon Swinburne were using to market their wares. Herschel Keefer (lower left) as Wilde and Dick Schall (lower right) as Swinburne were very funny as they burlesqued the posturing of the poetic fad. Patricia Annis (center below) as Patience, the milkmaid who didn't know about these things, was a joy to see and to hear.

The Glee Club, with James L. Casaday's elaborate costumes, furnished melodic background for the production and did an excellent job with the rapid-fire Gilbert lyrics. The number that really brought down the house was the super-aesthetic appearance of the duke, the colonel, and major.

Much credit is due the directors, Mr. Casaday, Mrs. Pate, and Mrs. McClure, and the students who worked so hard and had fun doing it.

The Adams P.T.A., who sewed up the Casaday costumes; and the property people, who ransacked the east side, deserve much credit.

FIRST ROW: Norma Zimmerman, Nancy Bartol, Charmaine Fishburn, Joan LaCrosse, Marcia West, Mary Erhardt, Theresa Catanzarite.

WE OF Adams are proud of our Glee Club and have a right to be. The 95 Glee Club members, under the direction of Mrs. Lawrence T. Pate, have given us a year of music to remember.

The very impressive Christmas program began with a candle light processional. After hearing many of our favorite Christmas carols, and many new, beautiful numbers, the program closed with all attending Glee Club alumnae joining in "Silent Night."

The Glee Club and Drama Club kept up their reputation for giving successful productions by presenting, in the Spring, Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta "Patience", in which there were ten soloists and a chorus of sixty-five. They also assisted the Hi-Y in making our Easter Assembly one to remember.

Programs were given at Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, P. T. A., and several local churches.

The outstanding soloists this year have been Don Stevens, Hershel Keefer, Norma Zimmerman, and Beverly Jean Harden. The pianists-accompanying the Glee Club were Pat Annis, Pat Lidecker, Corrine Firth, Elnore Moore, Mary Erhardt and Marilyn Kuehn.

The officers of the Glee Club were Bob Lea, president; Dagny Lenon, vice president; and Betty Furnish, secretary.

Band

THE Adams band has been unusually busy this year, having participated in several concerts. Among these were the three given at the junior high schools, Jefferson, Lincoln, and Nuner. The annual Spring Concert was given in our auditorium April 20. This was the last concert for the graduating seniors.

For the first time in Adams history the band entered the State Contest at Elkhart.

At the football and basketball games the band added color and spirit.

Several of our band members played in the all-city Clinic Band in January which was under the supervision of Mila Hovey of the Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music in Indianapolis.

Orchestra

THE high light for the orchestra was the organization of a city wide orchestra clinic. In the fall weekly rehearsals with members from other South Bend high schools focused towards the concert which was conducted by Miss Elizabeth Green, of Ann Arbor, Michigan. Miss Green won the approval of both the orchestra and the audience. Her ability to lead the orchestra of 75 members in many difficult selections is rarely found in women conductors.

In the spring the orchestra provided the delightful orchestra accompaniment for the singers in the opera, "Patience." Additional musicians from the city were invited to play with the group. Marilyn Wintz, 'cellist, was the first soloist from Adams to enter the Elkhart district contest.

Throughout the entire year the orchestra has been reading music of Beethoven, Schubert, Glinka and other famous masters. Experience in playing the music proved to be helpful to the members of the orchestra in understanding the various types of music for orchestra.

Señors

THE purpose of the Señors Club is to be of service to John Adams and to promote school spirit. This club has, under the capable guidance of Mr. A. T. Krider, accomplished several things during the past year.

The Señors collaborated with the Tower staff to sponsor the "Basket-Ball", the all school dance. The club also helped with the Christmas assembly in December as well as aiding the Ushers Club during the basketball season.

This spring the Señors Club is in the process of raising funds to send the tower to former Adams students in the armed forces.

The officers of this organization are: John Goldsberry, president; Louis La Pierre, secretary; and Erwin Karlin, treasurer.

Any boy who goes to John Adams is eligible for membership if he is engaged in one extra-curricular activity and his scholastic average measures up to the standards of the club. At press time there are nineteen active members in the club, and we graduating Señors hope for the success of the club under the direction of the remaining members.

The gang meets frequently and eats continually.

Library

THIS is your Library Club! These are the boys and girls who who put in no less than three hours a week in aiding Miss Brown make this room of adventure and facts a peaceful and appealing place for your knowledge-thirsty(?) souls.

This year the group has been meeting on Wednesday morning during Sponsor Period, under the direction of their officers: President Pat Alexander, Vice President Maxine Stuart, and Secretary-Treasurer Joan Steinmetz.

THE National University Extension Association chose for the nation-wide debate topic the proposition, "Resolved: That the Legal Voting Age be Reduced to Eighteen Years." This proposition was selected because of its importance in Congress and its interest to students of high school age.

The opener for the season was an extemporaneous speech contest followed by round-table discussions of issues of the debate topic.

As members of the St. Joseph County Forensic League, John Adams debaters shared arguments with Central, Riley, Washington, and Mishawaka.

The single trip taken out of town by the group was to the North Central Debate Meet held in LaPorte.

The final event of the debate season was a banquet featuring after-dinner speeches given by representatives from each of the high schools.

THE Hi-Y is sponsored by our capable industrial arts teacher Floyd Dickey. After being idle the first semester the club is progressing rapidly. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend through the school and community, high standards of Christian character. The officers of the club are Jim Bowlin, president; Dale Douglass, vice president; Jack Jaqua, secretary; and Bill Baker, treasurer. The religious end is handled effectively by Bill Anderson. Sergeant-at-Arms is Bill Lambert.

The club sponsored the annual Easter Assembly and the Hi-Y dance in collaboration with other schools in the city.

Student Council

THE Student Council represents a means by which the students may express any ideas or opinions they may have concerning school problems and affairs.

This year the Council sponsored a straw vote election in connection with the national campaign. The Council also gave a record dance after the Riley vs. Adams basketball game. They are now trying to accomplish several projects.

The officers are: Louie McKinney, president; Janice Van Houten, vice president; Pat Kindig, secretary; and Dale Douglass, treasurer.

Ushers' Club

THE USHERS CLUB has ushered for for some 55 events during the school year. It is one of the oldest organizations in the school, being formed in the fall of 1940. Some of the things that the club handled this year were the football and basketball games, the Christmas Musical, Invitational Basketball Tourney, County Basketball Tourney, Sectionals, Regionals, School Plays, Civic Music, South Bend Symphony, Bennet Bros. Circus, Professional Basketball, Blackstone the Magician, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

The club had a total membership of 32. James Young was the Head Usher, and Owen Booth, Bob Hutmacher, Dare Nestlerode, and Jack Wright were the Captains. For every time an usher reports for duty on time and observes the by-laws of the club, he receives a merit. These merits accumulate over the years until the usher graduates. For not reporting for duty when required, or for not observing the by-laws an usher may receive a demerit. Four demerits discontinue an usher's membership automatically. For 15 merits a chevron is awarded. For 35 merits a second chevron is awarded. When an usher has earned 60 merits, he receives a gold pin and guard. For 80 merits a white star is awarded.

Quite a few ushers earned gold pins this year and quite a few received white stars. The following have earned their white stars: Bill Bachman, Owen Booth, Joel Bullard, Gordon Enfield, Tom Glaser, Tom McMurray, Dare Nestlerode, Fred Neiter, Dick Robinson, Jack Wright, and James Young. The following earned gold pins: Fred Barrell, Wally Coffeney, Dick Hammond, Bob Hutmacher, Peter McNamee, Jack Pfaff, Jim Sennett, and Bill Stolcenberg.

Mr. Weir is the sponsor of the club and he has done an excellent job of directing the boys in their activities. The club gives the boy an opportunity to serve the school, and to gain experience in handling people and using authority.

Screen

ONE club at Adams of which very little is heard is the Screen Club. It is an outstanding service club and has contributed much toward the school's educational program. The club consists of 13 boys, who, under the supervision of Mr. Rothermel, run all of the movies shown at John Adams. Operators who have been with the club for three years are Maynard Cohn, Erwin Karlin, Herbert LaRue, Jack Marriott and James Young, the head operator.

All of the operators are very deserving of sincere thanks. They have given much of their study hall time to the job they have done so well.

Girl Reserves

GIRL Reserves is a part of the Y.W.C.A. Members attended the candle light Recognition Service; Northern Indiana State Conference in Elkhart; Hi-Y-G. R. joint events including Boy and Girl Conference; and the World Fellowship Banquet. This spring they will sponsor a dance. Their officers were Alma Williams president; Lois Hamon, treasurer; and Miss Mildred Giffin the Advisor.

Tower

THE Tower of 1944-'45 consisted of 29 issues, including two Senior issues, a novel program for the school play, "Beggar On Horseback," and a special Literary Issue.

The staff was headed by Dagny Lenon, Editor. She was assisted by Feature Editor Muriel Johnson, Business Manager Roger Schoonaert, Advertising Manager Pat Kindig, Circulation Manager Pat Alexander, and Sports Editors Richard Stevens, First Semester, and Jimmie McNeile, Second Semester. The Faculty Advisor was Miss Florence Roell.

The Tower staff added to its duties of publishing the school paper by contributing to several other extra activities. Two classes of sophomores were welcomed to John Adams in assemblies sponsored by the Tower. The club also worked with the Senors Club in presenting the all school dance, the "Basket Ball."

In every organization there are people who do the actual work and get little of the glory. In the Tower staff these people are listed in the "Minor Staff" box. Never before has any group of writers worked so well together and "pulled through" so consistently, week by week. The success of the "Tower-45" was due to these fine people.

D. Lenon.

Album

THE work of making your ALBUM is a task that begins with the first week of school and continues through the last day and frequently beyond. Doing the layouts for the dummy, making appointments for the senior portraits, designing a cover, getting photographs made and printed, pasting up layouts and then pasting them up again, writing copy, and then checking and checking and checking are a few of the jobs that manage to get done somehow. Sooner or later you bundle it off to engraver, printer and bookbinder and then start all over again on the job of distribution and collection.

The tower room was our official hang-out for the first semester. It was a wonderful place to work except for one thing—After getting there everyone was too exhausted to do anything. During the second semester the ALBUM material and sometimes part of the staff was buried in the pile of litter on Mr. McNamara's desk.

Football

THE won and lost totals for Adams' '44 football team makes very sour reading. The team won from Goshen and Central Catholic, and was defeated by Central, Riley, Washington, LaPorte, and Michigan City. As Roy Andrews said at the basketball banquet, it was a season for character building.

Three veterans of last year's team, Goldsberry, McKinney, and Heckaman, and a lot of novices started the season against Mishawaka. The game was played at the Mishawaka field and a near capacity crowd saw the Cavemen win twenty-one to six. The crowd also saw John Goldsberry give a brilliant demonstration of tackle play — a demonstration that he was to repeat for the rest of the season.

The Central game featured some very rugged football. Both clubs were so anxious to win that they gave the officials occasion to pace off a total of one hundred seventy yards in penalties. Twice this free yardage gave the Eagles the ball deep in Central's territory but both times the boys lacked the power to punch over scores. Morrical of Central was far and away the star of the game, however our own punters, Andrews and Nitz, deserve a blow for averaging forty-seven yards per boot. The final score: Adams 0 — Central 7.

At Goshen the Eagles got a taste of victory. Coach Goldsberry had reached deep into his bag of tricks for a razzle-dazzle pass offense that lined the boys up practically anywhere but in normal position. It was good medicine for it payed off 13 to 7. McKinney plunged for one score to climax a series of completed passes and Heckaman threw to Murphy for the second.

Riley gave Adams the worst licking in her history to mark the end of the first half of the season. The romp ended Riley 43 — Adams 0. The Rileyites had a very nice evening. A week later the Eagles had State Champion Washington as their assignment. Our boys lost this meeting 24-0, but did meet some interesting people — three complete teams of them and so big too.

Having dealt generously with Riley and Washington the boys had an opportunity to get in a little morale building at the expense of Central Catholic. They took it 33-0. Curt Heckaman scored three touchdowns on long runs and Andy got the other two on similar performances. Goldsberry even got in a little ball carrying when he went into the backfield to crunch over a point after touchdown.

At LaPorte it appeared for a little while that the boys were going to

Baseball

THE '44 Adams baseball team was rolling along merrily toward a conference championship a year ago as the '44 Album went to press. Let it be recorded here that they continued their unbroken string of victories to the end of that season to bring the school its first Conference Championship. The team won eight games and lost none, scored thirty-six runs to their opponents: ten, and supported Glenn Hankins' pitching with clutch hitting whenever it was needed.

At press time in the '45 season the team has won one practice game from Washington but has dropped the three conference games it has played to Central, Elkhart, and LaPorte. Hankins, the steady left hander of last season, and Al Brunt are dividing the pitching assignments. The outstanding fielder of the team is Roy Andrews at third base. Most of the other players are inexperienced but may yet hit their stride and balance the won-lost figures.

Tennis

THE tennis team enjoyed only a mediocre season in the fall of '44. We bested Mishawaka in our inter-city series, tying one match and winning the other. The Central Bears beat Adams twice.

Baker played first man; John Bennet, second; and Don Egendoerfer third. John Shafer and Howard DePree made up the first doubles team, while the second team consisted of Emory Thomas and Dick Guin. All the members of the team, with the exception of DePree, are to return to school next year.

Mr. Reber, our versatile coach, was kept busy cancelling meets. The cancellations were due to adverse weather conditions. The conference meet was held at Elkhart on rain-soaked courts.

Golf

Mr.

THOMPSON'S golfers are breaking even in their matches as the Album goes to press. Mishawaka, Michigan City, Central, and again Mishawaka have contributed nobly to Adams Conference standing. Central and LaPorte have each won one match from the Eagles and Riley has turned the trick twice. All home matches are being played over the Erskine course this year.

Golf, like tennis, is played as a series of individual matches. Al Smith is shooting in number one position this year with LeRoy Brown, Jim Sennett, Johnny Weissert, Bob Stafford, and Garrett Flickinger following in that order. Carl Johnson and Bill Bachman have played in the bottom spot in a few matches.

Basketball

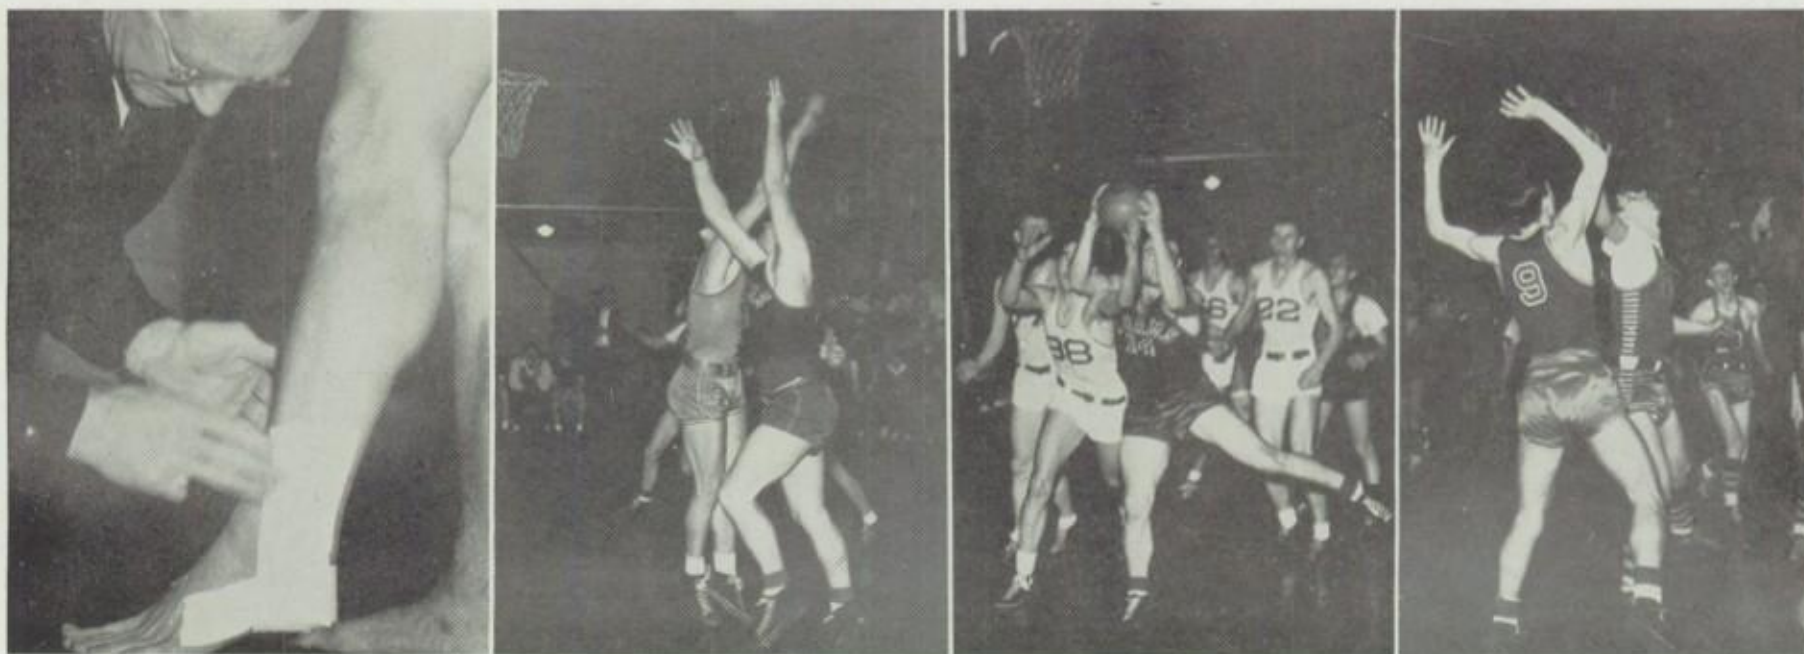

THE Adams basketball team of '44-'45 had, in comparison to the Sectional Champions and Regional finalists of the previous season, an indifferent season. The team won six games and lost fifteen. The high point of the season was the victory over Riley in the Christmas Invitational Tourney. Until Riley met Bosse of Evansville in the finals of the state meet, only Adams and Central had managed to get a decision over the Wildcats. The Eagles were short on size, experience, and victories, but turned in a lot of closely contested and well played games. They did no violence to the well established Adams tradition for smart, scrappy basketball.

The guard positions were played by Erv Karlin and Roy Andrews, the smallest pair in the conference. Andy didn't play a poor game all season and Karlin, though bothered by a back injury, played his usual steady game. Glen Personette, a sophomore of great promise, and Jim Smith understudied in the back court. Personette will be around two more years and should develop into quite a boy.

Omnipresent Goldsberry played center and in spite of his size did a good job of keeping up with his lighter gauge colleagues. John developed a pivot shot this year that worked a good deal of the time for impressive point totals. Dick Fohrer, a big, fast, rugged junior, developed into an excellent alternate for Goldie. If he isn't in uniform next season, he should be a power house.

The season was topped off on April 26 with a basketball banquet prepared by Miss Anderson and her home economics class and served in the cafeteria. Players, managers, and faculty attended, ate well, and heard some of the shortest speeches on record from members of the coaching staff and the senior players. Monogram sweaters were awarded to Wulf, Fohrer, Personette, and Smith; chevrons went to Howard, Fohrer, Nitz, Wulf, Personette, and Smith; Certificates were awarded to Goldsberry, Andrews, McKinney, and Karlin; and both the Honorary Captaincy and the Kiwanis Award went to Roy Andrews.

Track

THE 1945 edition of the Adams Track Team enjoyed an exceptionally successful track season.

The Eagles won the Michigan City, Washington-Clay, and Niles quadrangular meet, finished second in the City Meet, and placed fourth in the Eastern Division of the Northern Indiana High School Conference.

Several all time John Adams track records were established by members of the '45 team.

The outstanding performer in 1945, as during his entire high school career, was "Big John" Coldsberry. The all around athlete, standing 6' 1" in his stocking feet and weighing 235 lbs. started the 1945 season with the best toss of his career in a dual meet with Central, when he heaved the shot 53' 4" to surpass the state mark of 52' 11" and to set a School Field record. As the season progressed he kept well over the fifty foot mark and broke the Elkhart field record. During the N.I.H.S.C. meet he set a new conference mark and also broke Mishawaka's field record by virtue of his 52' ½" toss. "Big John" won the state championship in 1944, and this year he is not only expected to win, but also to break the present state record.

Other seniors with fine records are Roy Andrews and Louie McKinney. These two boys are the first four lettermen in Adams athletic history. They deserve praise for their work on the track team, which for both of them consists of the 100 and 120 yard dashes and the half mile relay team.

G. A. A.

THE Girls' Athletic Association has filled an important function at Adams during 1945. Last fall the girls held their annual initiation for new members at the Isaac Walton league clubhouse, north of the city. At that time all new members and seniors were presented with red roses.

The year's program started with bowling and Wava Douglas was acclaimed the champion bowler. The girls have met every Monday at the Bowl-Mor and now we hear a lot of them are almost as good as Wava.

Later volley ball teams were organized and play took place during the noon hour. Then after the badminton tournament play-off, Kathleen Buman emerged as the winner. Intramural basketball was next on the schedule and after that the excitement of the "telegraphic" swimming meet, during which Adams girls came in third. This spring there was a big turn-out for tennis and soft ball.

You probably saw those "Popcorn is five cents" girls at the sectional tournament? The girls were selling refreshments for the benefit of G.A.A. They also made and sold yarn dolls to be worn at basketball games. The money earned in this way was used to buy letters and monograms for the club. This year for the first time G.A.A. members are proudly wearing a gold pin with the club emblem.

carry on with their newly learned winning ways. On their third offensive attempt they picked up a score. The Slicers refused to cooperate further, however, and proceeded to win the game 30-6. In this game McKinney, who had been nursing a leg injury all through the season, was so badly hurt that he was unable to play in the final game with Michigan City.

The season closed in a dismal rain with everyone coated in frigid mud. Both Andrews and Heckaman scored but it wasn't good enough and the game ended 24-14.

The football banquet was held on November 20 with Mr. Krider acting as toastmaster. The featured speaker was Mr. Adam Walsh of the Notre Dame coaching staff and captain of Notre Dame's 1924 Four Horsemen National Champions. Preliminary speeches were made by Superintendent of Schools Allen, Mr. Wood, and Coach Powell. Coach Goldsberry introduced the members of both the "A" and "B" squads and their parents. Mr. Sargent awarded monogram certificates to John Balok, Curt Heckaman, Bob Casey, Louis McKinney and John Goldsberry. Certificates and chevrons were awarded to Roy Andrews and Chuck Murphy while sweaters and certificates went to Cordon Gould, Dan Walters, Larry Turner, Jim Bowlin, Don Graf, Bill Thoner, Jack Weil, Bill Bachman, Bob Lea, Calvin Joris, Bob Nitz, and Glen Zubler. Dale Douglass, senior manager, received a major letter with four chevrons. Manager Eugene Young received a minor letter. Roy Andrews received the Gilbert Award for the Most Valuable Backfield Man. Big John Goldsberry swept the field of other honorary awards. He received Reco Award for Most Valuable Lineman, the Kiwanis Award, the Tribune Award and the Honorary Captaincy.

In his first year on the squad John Rigby won his letter in the 120 yard high hurdles, in the 220 dash, and in half mile relay.

Jack Jaqua, a veteran of last year's squad and also a senior has a very good chance to set a new Adams mark in the half mile run, his best time, as we go to press, being 2:08.6. Jack also ran with the mile relay team.

Jack Beal completes the list of graduating trackmen. He was an excellent all around man, participating and placing in the 100, 120, and 440 yard dashes. He also ran with both relay teams.

Chuck Murphy, a junior, holds the Adams 440 yard dash mark with a 53.9. John Shafer shares the high jump record of 5' 8" which he tied in the Elkhart dual meet. Dan Walters boasts the top mark in low hurdles which he may surpass again this season. His best time is 25.5 seconds. Dan is an excellent broad jumper.

Next year's half milers will be Bill Baker and Glenn Zubler. Both had good seasons this past year. Zubler also shows promise in the high jump. Frank Wulf will appear in the 440 and mile relay, John Shafer and Emory Thomas in hurdle events, Tom McMurray in the pole vault, Dick Guin, Don Egendoerfer and Dick Schall will be in the dashes. Bob Nitz placed fourth in broad jump in the conference meet and Jerry Gibson, a sophomore, got a sixth in the event. Three other sophomores showing definite possibilities are Jack Swinderman in high jump, Jim Balok as a miler and big Manuel Jackson in the shot put.
